

Our VET institution cooperates with universities

total strangers

happy campers

What tips do you have to engage with 'the other side'

keep an open mind, try to walk in each other's shoes

meet on eye level

Question mutual needs

Make projects together

Work together in innovation

Learning curves knowledge

Share facilities

COVEs

bridging courses

What tips do you have to engage with 'the other side'

Common interest

common goal oriented for a better future

Use common language

START A COVE!

The best way is when university provides courses for teachers and trainers from vet And lectures from uni participate on lectures at vet.

Share facilities

Establishment of VET centers at universities, work with public authorities

Work together to create permeability

Shared courses (when possible)

What tips do you have to engage with 'the other side'

universities offering train the trainers for vet understanding and promoting coexistence promoting permeability

Openness and readiness for Cooperation concrete actions

Vet students can proceed to university studies and have both a strong understanding and an academic degrees.

Students of VET can have a dual degree

Learning the theory combined with technical triangle projects VET provider - university - companie

What tips do you have to engage with 'the other side'

Skills competitions

Cove