

What is the biggest challenge for the labour market of tomorrow?

How quickly does VET adapt/change?

turtle

content of the curriculum

4.3

didactics / learning methods

4.8

share our innovations with SME's

4.8

changing stakeholders in the ecosystem

4.7

preparing students for life long learning

5.8

cheetah

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

prepare ppl for the change

Start young

By offering them different courses.

Lifelong learning by Work based learning (soft skills)

Soft skills

soft skills

Upskilling

Soft skills

international mobility

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

In collaboration with companies

Soft skill

Resilience

Attractive learning

Skills based learning

Lifelong learning

Learning to learn

On the job training

Resilience

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

We need to analyze their needs in real

By offering high quality education and training

We can talk clearly with our student

Soft skills

Don't forget informal learning!

Dual learning system

Learn how to learn

Soft skills. Learn how to learn

Being human

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Career orientation.Promoting skills in society at large.

Growth mindset

By art events, seminars, conferences and round tables

Self confidence in skills of adaptation

Teach them how to adapt

With innovative models of governance

Uğakills

changing paradigm of pedagogy

Start teaching to learn for the self development

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Personal development

Lifelong learning

Critical thinking

Soft Skills

Teach them to learn and adapt

Open-mind and adaptability

Soft skills from early ages

Investment into skills and tools for better learning human values

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Mind transformation

Sensitising them on the importance and benefits of this transformation

Teach about their roots and human influence

Soft skills

teach creativity and curiosity

Offer them career development paths

Provide opportunities Motivation Emotional intelligence Needs

Starting with young people.

Adaptable

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Soft skills

Soft skills

Lifelong learning

To have fun and motivation to keep on learning

Ressilience

Focus more on the mental health of an entire generation

Combination of a right skills set

Work on a professional attitude empower learners to make the take control of their own learning

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Allways think far ahead

Implementing smart specialisations

Life long learning

Soft skills

Respect for nature

With communicate by different cultures other then

With a Labour market that give opportunities for decent job to all

Motivation and inclusive approach

Having networks and working in teams. Use the strengths of members of a team.

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

individualised

We should see what transition is enough for each individual.

Start Early, but Individualise everyone

WBL

Skills competitions to promote VET

Culture of learning

Needs must be evident

Start in the kindergarten

To keep motivating them.

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Continuous learning
Creative and analytical thinking
Work in teams
Responsible behavior

Confidence for everyone.

Providing high quality and smart training

Train the trainers

Involving public administration and families into this challenging goal teach cooperation and critical thinking

Poorly. We need to learn them how to learn continuously

Propagate awareness about change social learning

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Preparing a good knowledge base (currently impacted by restrictions of pandemic)

Using innovations in VET

Opportunities for blended, workbased and module learning

Teaching them to think, learn and put in practice

Getting people out into practical fields and letting them explore the world firsthand

Teach them action learning skills

Teach them how to think out of the box all people- we can't...

More Europe. Fraternity, Solidarity, Diversity.

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

communication

Skills competitions to attract young people to VET

By fostering social cohesion and spreading the mentality of 'leave no one behind'

By creating innovative but safe learning environments. By encouraging not only learners but also teachers to be curious to learn new methods and technologies.

Open mindset Collaborate Positivity Resilience Green skills

Work based learning

Qualifying Educate Training

International mobility

By let them work and learn at real projects

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

We need to understand way of thinking of young generation at first

Work on changing the mindsets.

Facilitate for them to follow their own ideas, their own learning path, allow for mistakes to be learned of. The only constant is change

Change the role of teachers

Prepare for permant leraning and innovation the work labour.

Flexibel free money for traveling, creativity and art performance face to face

Trust in possibilities

More Europe

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Introduce them to good practices of education to motivate them.

Accept everyone... using the talents...

Community building

basic knowledge- innovation-humanity

Learn them how to use their network focus on personality

Give equal attention to practical skills training and soft skills training

Companies committed to long life learning

Professional differentiation and soft orientation

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

To stress common responsibility towards sustainable development.

More Europe. Solidarity.

Soft skills

By sharing and networking

learn with fun

Dual training

Play down the training

Practical training

Life long learning

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

By Lifelong Learning

Curiosity and engagement

Give them opportunities for positive experiences of participation as active change agents equipped with problem-solving skills and creative mindset in their local environments.

With free access to education and support

Live learning

Teach open mindedness

Open up - teach trust and solidarity, get rid of restrictions listen to the needs of young generation and let them explore and find new ways

We need to understand their way of thinking

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Facilitate life long learning paths

Individualised learning

Enhance entrepreneurship in a broad collaboration rich possibilities of additional short courses, microcredentials

Link and bridge generations

Help them feel empowered cross-sectoral

We have to provide enough support

Skills competitions

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Give them action learning skills

Culture of learning

We have to raise our children that way. Develop culture of learning and flexibility

Change the teachers' quality

Teach flexibility

Through training and constant support within the workplace as well as a sense of understanding on the challenges that workers face.

MORE EUROPE

be nice to people

Know the basics

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Give lecturers industrial experience

More adaptive education

Resilience

prepare the teachers

European spirit

Listen to First Nations people

Leadership to enhance their teams to embrace a life long learning mindset

Open mindset

A valid nag linked to eqf

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Fast change = revolution. Foster solidarity to enable this

Teach meritocracy through fair competition include enterprises

Peer to peer learning has a place to equip people with global citizens skills

Flexibility

Actual occupational standards

Learning culture

Show them all the things from recent past that are obsolete now.

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

Coping with changes ,

encouraging them to learn

Keep the work based training relevant and up to date

By recognizing each person's potential and limits and providing opportunities within the workplace for them to cherish

Informal learning and new formats

By inciting and supporting structural change in the companies

Usability

Action Learning

Learn how to learn and mind set for flexibility and mobility

How do we prepare and equip all people for a life of permanent transition?

By providing digital competences and way of transformation of processes follow market trends and technological innovations + private industry part of the solution + strong VET + change in mindset educate from early age with open minded approach keep a strong connection with practice adjusting methods for the different age groups empower educators by reducing administrative burden, encourage and support development of their capacity

We need a new Social Contract on fairer distribution of capital gains, salary increase, reduction of working hours of classic work to four days, free training for new skills paid by the state, regional and European funds or employers.

Kids should not lose curiosity by education